Case no. 3: 21-cv-00288-MMD-CLB

Motion to inform the Court of Plaintiffs actions to serve the summons on the Defendants.

Comes now Raymond D. Yowell, the Plaintiff, by and thru him self, Pro Se, and files this motion informing the Court of his actions in trying to serve the summons on the Defendants of this Case.

On the date of Nov. 1-2021, the Plaintiff filed a motion to the Court for an enlargement of time of sixty days on his Case.

The Court granted the motion for an enlargement of time to Jan., 10, 2022.

Process Sever, One Source Process, LLC, located in Washington D. C. does all of its business thru E-Mail.

The Plaintiff does not have E-Mail. The Plaintiffs monetary income is confined to the fixed sum of $1,062.14 a month and is maxed out all of the time with paying for his monthly living expenses thereby making it impossible to pay the additional cost of having to pay for E-Mail.

The Plaintiff, on the date of 12- 15- 2021, thru another party that has E-Mail, hired One Source Process, LLC, to serve the summons on the Defendants. ( See Plaintiffs exhibit no. 1, payment completed to One Source Process, LLC ).

On the date of 1-6-2022, the Plaintiff received two documents from the One Source Process, LLC. One the proof of service form stating that they were not able to serve the Bureau of the Fiscal Service due to the building being sold and not being able to find the new address for them. ( See Plaintiffs exhibit no. 2 ). The other document was an affidavit, 642404, stating that they had sent by U. S. mail via Certified Mail back on Dec. 20, 2021 to the Comptroller General of the United States and that the mail service in D.C. was bad and that the service of summons documents had not been delivered. ( See Plaintiffs exhibit no. 3 ).

There being two working days left before the enlargement of time granted by the Court runs out, it is pursuant to that fact that the Plaintiff is filing this motion to let the Court know that he has tried to have the summons served on the Defendants .

Respectfully submitted,

Raymond D. Yowell

You would have to submit a new order with the correct address for service in order for us to try again. Unfortunately there is no refund that applies to a service that has already been attempted. There would be an additional fee involved to serve the new address.

For the Comptroller, we did mail the documents via Certified Mail back on Dec 20th, however the mail service here in DC is terrible and they still have not been delivered. If you look at the tracking, you will see the delays. The tracking number is 70202450000084993227. We typically wait until the documents have been delivered to prepare an affidavit, but we can provide you with one without the delivery information listed on it if you would like. Please advise as to how you would like to proceed in regards to this matter.

Thank you,

Andrew Vita
